

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FOUNDER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Lex Howard, CEO of Balance of Nature

Mr. Howard's father, Dr. Douglas Howard, founded Balance of Nature - a dietary supplement of fruits and vegetables as well as a fiber and spice product. Lex purchased the company from his father at the age of 21 and he has grown the company to an international scale.

TREASURER OF THE BOARD

Dimon McFerson, Retired CEO of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company

Mr. McFerson now calls Utah home after spending most of his career in Ohio. He currently sits on the Ohio State University Board of Trustees.

SECRETARY OF THE BOARD

Tim Martin, Retired Nuclear Power Consultant

Mr. Martin attended the US Naval Academy in Annapolis, MD then served eight years in nuclear submarines where his last assignment was as the Engineer officer on a fast-attack sub that trailed Russian subs during the cold war. Upon leaving the Navy, he became a consultant to the power industry and in 1986 founded his own management consulting firm serving primarily nuclear power plants throughout the world. He resides in St. George, Utah.

BOARD MEMBER

John Bowler, Director of Alumni Relations at Utah Tech University (formerly Dixie State University)

Mr. Bowler served as the University's development officer since 2015. When he was a student of the University, he served as the student body president, and after graduating in 1985, stayed connected with the institution. Prior to returning in 2015, he owned a marketing and consulting company that primarily served the health care industry.

BOARD MEMBER

Nancy Lyon, Advancement Officer at University of Utah

In addition to her work at the University of Utah, Ms. Lyon serves on the PBS Utah Advisory Board.
